

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Connie R. Muth has been an employee of the Beadle County Auditor's Office for 27 years, serving 16 years as the Beadle County Auditor; and,

Whereas, Connie has provided exemplary service to Beadle County as a dedicated employee willing to work along with other county, city, and state offices and agencies and providing this service with integrity, professionalism, and leadership, which have made her a valuable employee; and,

Whereas, Connie is retiring February 27, 2009, but Beadle County will continue to benefit from her energy, achievements, and contributions because "it's always been done that way"; and,

Whereas, Connie has been a loving wife to Ron for 40 years, an inspirational mother to Aundrea, Rhonda, and Heather, and a much loved mother-in-law and grandmother; and,

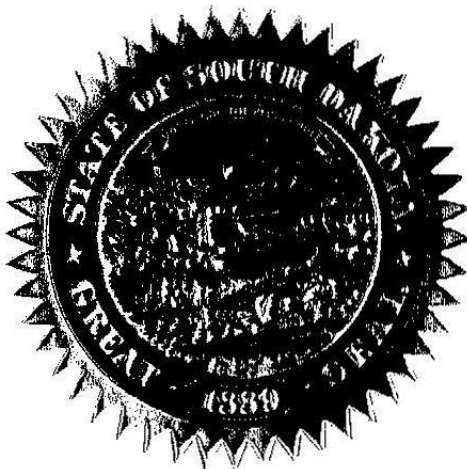

Whereas, Connie has earned the right to camp when she wants, sit by the lake with her feet up, head to the race track, sit in her favorite chair in the sun, and drink slushy Diet Coke; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the many accomplishments of this employee:

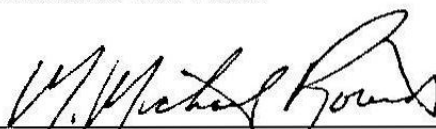

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 27, 2009, as in South Dakota, and I join with her family and friends in wishing her well in her retirement and thanking her for her service.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fourth Day of February in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Nine.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
